

Are you tough enough to be
HILUX TOUGH ?

HILUXTROPHY™ 2014

HiluxTrophy is a tough 4x4 competition designed for individuals that don't use their Hilux only as a means of commuting from A to B. HiluxTrophy is for the men and woman that live and breathe Africa. HiluxTrophy has arrived to settle a score, to find out who in South Africa is Tough enough to be crowned as the first HiluxTrophy winner.

HiluxTough HiluxDiverse

This is a 4x4 competition with a difference, entrants will be tested not only on their extreme 4x4 driving abilities and ultimate 4x4 skills, but also their ability to navigate in the bush, knowledge of the surrounding area and knowledge of their Hilux. HiluxTrophy promises to test the adventurer in all participants, to expose the weak and those that are not yet totally converted to HiluxTough. HiluxTrophy contenders will be pitted against the toughest conditions Africa has to offer, facing off other serious HiluxTough owners and their partners.

The Event

Elimination rounds will be staged in The Cradle of Humankind near Magaliesburg, starting off early February up to April 2014. The final event will be held late April, pitting the toughest 18 competitors against each other over 4 days of HiluxTough competition. HiluxTrophy 2014 will open for entries on 25 October 2013, with only 180 entries available. Do not miss out on the opportunity to be crowned HiluxTrophy champion 2014.

HiluxTrophy is open to all Hilux VIGO (N70) 4x4 models from 2005 until present. Teams to consist of a principal driver with navigator. For more details, further information, competition rules and entry details visit <http://www.hiluxtrophy.co.za> / 071 428 4910
